COUNTY PARKING KIOSKS UNVEILED

Electronic parking kiosks debuted Monday at the County Governmental Building and Santa Cruz County Courthouse, providing a convenient way for visitors to conduct business while reducing the likelihood of receiving a parking ticket.

Situated in the parking area in front of 701 Ocean St. in Santa Cruz, the two kiosks accept coins, cash or credit cards, and allow visitors to pay by the hour (50 cents per hour) rather than purchase $5 all-day parking passes. Parking remains free for up to an hour in spots immediately in front of the County Governmental Building, and for up to two hours in other public areas of the lot.

Visitors expecting to stay more than one or two hours may purchase added parking upon arrival, or upon the expiration of their free parking. In either case, follow the on-screen instruction at the kiosk.

Once the transaction is completed, users must place the receipt on their dashboard. No change will be given at the kiosks.
