SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS, CONDITIONS:

License Requirements: Possession of a valid California class B driver license; and within six months from hire, possession of a valid California class A driver license with Tank Endorsement.

Special Working Conditions: Exposure to: Variable temperatures and weather conditions; cramped work spaces; heights, such as on equipment, on cliffs or in the bucket of a bucket truck; high levels of noise; strong, unpleasant odors; vibration; dust and silica dust; potentially hostile or violent individuals; electrical hazards; allergens, such as poison oak and stinging insects; the possibility of experiencing burns, bodily injury, and contact with toxic substances and chemical irritants; working alone in isolated areas; and, for some assigned tasks, possible exposure to needles or blood which could possibly result in chronic disease or death.

Other Special Requirements: Alcohol and drug tests will be administered to all candidates prior to final selection for positions requiring class A or B driver licenses upon entry and to employees in positions requiring these licenses, as mandated by Department of Transportation federal regulations. In addition, all candidates must provide specific employment history for up to the past ten years for all jobs they have held which required operation of a commercial motor vehicle.

Availability to work irregular hours, including responding to twenty-four-hour emergency calls.

Knowledge: Thorough knowledge of: safe road construction practices; basic methods and materials used in road, bridge or drainage maintenance work. Working knowledge of: the proper operation and maintenance of heavy and light road construction equipment; the proper use and maintenance of hand tools and power tools used in public works maintenance work; the principles of supervision and training.

Ability to: Assign, direct and coordinate the work of a large crew or several small crews engaged in a variety of public works maintenance activities; train subordinate staff in the operation of equipment, the performance of specialized maintenance activities and safe work practices; skillfully operate complex heavy equipment used in road construction work; understand and carry out oral and written instructions; use and operate tools and equipment efficiently and safely; prepare written and oral reports related to the activities performed by assigned crew; communicate effectively with co-workers, the public and outside agencies; work cooperatively with others as part of a crew; work while standing for up to eight hours per day; lift items weighing up to 75 pounds; perform tasks requiring strength, such as shoveling, lifting equipment and materials into trucks, climbing over rough terrain, and using chain saws and pole saws; drive vehicles, such as pick-up trucks, two-axle dump trucks, tank vehicles, and flatbed trucks; learn to operate heavy equipment, such as motor graders, hydraulic excavators and cranes; distinguish colors, such as color-coded underground service alert markings and color-coded traffic signs; put on, wear and use a respirator and other safety equipment, such as hard hats, gloves, safety glasses and ear protection; hear and distinguish various sounds, such as voices of workers in noisy environments and sounds of operating equipment.

THE EXAMINATION: Your application and supplemental questionnaire will be reviewed to determine if you have met the education, experience, training and/or licensing requirements as stated in the job announcement. If you meet these criteria and are one of the best qualified, you may be required to compete in any combination of written, oral and/or performance examinations or a competitive evaluation of training and experience as described on your application and supplemental questionnaire. You must pass all components of the examination to be placed on the eligible list. The examination may be eliminated if there are ten or fewer qualified applicants. If the eligible list is established without the administration of the announced examination, the life of the eligible list will be six months, and your overall score will be based upon an evaluation of your application and supplemental questionnaire. If during those six months it is necessary to administer another examination for this job class, you will be invited to take the examination to remain on the eligible list.
