County Equity Statement

Equity in action in Santa Cruz County is a transformative process that embraces individuals of every status, providing unwavering support, dignity, and compassion.

Through this commitment, the County ensures intentional opportunities and access, fostering an environment where everyone can thrive and belong.

THE JOB: Under direction, as lead worker, plan, organize, and coordinate the field activities of the Code Compliance Investigator staff; perform the most difficult, sensitive or responsible investigations in the enforcement of County zoning, building, environmental, cannabis registration and licensing, and other land use ordinances and regulations; and perform other duties as required. The current vacancies are in the Cannabis Licensing Office and the Department of Community Development & Infrastructure Planning Division. The list established from this recruitment will be used to fill the current vacancies and it may also be used to fill other vacancies during the life of the eligible list.

THE REQUIREMENTS: Any combination of training and experience that would provide the required knowledge and abilities is qualifying. A typical way to obtain these knowledge and abilities would be:

One year of experience conducting complex code investigations requiring multi-department coordination such as high priority abatement cases and complex violations with health and safety, off-site and non-restorable impacts.

Special Requirements/Conditions: License: Possession of a valid California Class C Driver License. Special Working Conditions: Exposure to: variable temperatures; slippery surfaces; loud noises; sunburn; dust and pollen; silica dust such as asbestos in old homes; bee stings; infections, such as tick-borne Lyme disease or mosquito-borne encephalitis; angry or hostile persons; corrosive chemicals; wetness, such as while walking in the rain or through a stream on a site inspection.

Knowledge: Thorough knowledge of procedures used in gathering and compiling information; interviewing principles and techniques; zoning, building and environmental ordinances; investigative techniques and procedures; interviewing techniques and procedures; regulations, laws and other ordinances governing land use; principles, methods and techniques used in investigations and enforcement work including appropriate legal requirements and constraints; rules of evidence and court procedures; Federal, State, and local land use regulatory agencies; uniform building, plumbing, mechanical and electrical codes; and California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA). Working knowledge of office procedures and practices, including preparation of correspondence, reports and filing; and record keeping procedures and practices. Some knowledge of the principles and practices of supervision and training.

Ability to: Maintain accurate and legible field notes and document actions taken; independently apply inspection procedures for the full range of investigation cases and abatement programs; understand and follow oral and written instructions; communicate clearly and effectively with the public in stressful situations; establish and maintain effective working relationships with property owners, the general public, officials, and personnel of other agencies; read, interpret and apply zoning, environmental and building ordinances and related regulations, laws and other ordinances governing land use in an objective, accurate way; make detailed presentations on difficult or sensitive issues to internal and community groups and decision making committees, commissions and boards; research regulations, procedures and/or technical reference materials relating to code enforcement; read and understand plot plans, topographic maps, building plans and elevations; take initiative in carrying out direction and in formulating creative solutions to problems; complete thorough, accurate investigations of violations and follow up to achieve compliance; learn to input, access and analyze data using a computer; gather and evaluate facts and evidence and draw logical conclusions; work well individually and as a member of a professional and technical team; write clear, concise and comprehensive reports, correspondence, technical reports and program plans; make detailed presentations on complex issues to internal and community groups and decision-making committees, commissions and boards; bend, squat, climb and twist such as while conducting a site inspection under a house, in an attic or walking through brush; walk over uneven terrain such as unpaved roads, hills, trails, construction sites, and streams; perform tasks which require coordination and balance, such as walking on narrow ledges or on logs to cross streams; testify in administrative hearings and courts of law; and synthesize complex case issues, ordinances and legal requirements relative to investigation cases or abatement programs and make recommendations for departmental actions.

THE EXAMINATION: Your application and supplemental questionnaire will be reviewed to determine if you have met the education, experience, training and/or licensing requirements as stated on the job announcement. If you meet these criteria and are one of the best qualified, you may be required to compete in any combination of written, oral and/or performance examinations or a competitive evaluation of training and experience as described on your application and supplemental questionnaire. You must pass all components of the examination to be placed on the eligible list. The examination may be eliminated if there are ten or fewer qualified applicants. If the eligible list is established without the administration of the announced examination, the life of the eligible list will be six months and your overall score will be based upon an evaluation of your application and supplemental questionnaire. If during those six months it is necessary to administer another examination for this job class, you will be invited to take the examination to remain on the eligible list.

HOW TO APPLY: Apply online at www.santacruzcountyjobs.com or mail/bring an application and supplemental questionnaire to: Santa Cruz County Personnel Department, 701 Ocean Street, Room 510, Santa Cruz, CA 95060.
