

We at Concern are looking forward to serving your employees starting July 1, 2023.

Concern is a top tier provider of employee mental health and emotional wellbeing services and comprehensive crisis support. We offer confidential access to counseling, referrals to vetted resources and services for financial, legal, and dependent care issues, guided mindfulness, and digital self-help. With the right blend of human connection, compassion, and technology, we incorporate actionable, whole person strategies to make it easier to build resilience, learn new skills, and maintain a healthier, more satisfying life. Our proven approach puts employees on a path to feeling better faster.

In preparation for the launch of services to your Entity, we would like to recruit counselors currently serving your entity's employees onto the Concern panel. If you have a good relationship with your counselor, would like to continue to work with them, and wish to recommend them to Concern, please fill out the following information and send it, via email to the contact provided below.
