REGISTRATION OPENS FOR COUNTY'S LONGEST-RUNNING JOB FAIR

Employers encouraged to sign up for Access 2 Employment event

Santa Cruz County's longest-running job fair returns October 30th to the Boardwalk's Coconut Grove, and employers looking to hire top talent from across the region are encouraged to sign up.

Hosted by Access 2 Employment, a nonprofit founded in 1990 to help all Santa Cruz County residents advance their careers, the Access 2 Employment Job Fair provides leading local employers and staffing agencies a chance to share information about openings and opportunities with the local labor force. Prior exhibitors include the Santa Cruz Beach Boardwalk, Joby Aviation, Santa Cruz Metro, County of Santa Cruz, Big Creek Lumber, Cabrillo College, California Highway Patrol, Manpower, Martinell's, Santa Cruz City Schools, Santa Cruz Community Health Centers and many more.

Employers from every sector are welcome to sign up at <https://access2employment.com>. Sponsorships are available. Discounts may be available for public sector and nonprofit employers.

Job seekers of all ages and abilities are also welcomed to pre-register for the event. In addition to access to dozens of employers, attendees will have access to free resume review and other support for those navigating the job market.

Access 2 Employment's mission is to increase labor force participation for all. Access 2 Employment is a volunteer-based organization made up of representatives from various local agencies and businesses with a common goal – to improve the economic outlook of Santa Cruz County by linking job seekers with employers and employment resources.
