COUNTY BRINGS VOTER SERVICES TO LOCAL LIBRARIES

Ballots & Books offers voter services and family activities at eight libraries in October

The Santa Cruz County Clerk/Elections Office is bringing voter services to eight local libraries this October through Ballots & Books, helping residents prepare for the November 3, 2026, General Election.

Residents can register to vote, drop off completed ballots, obtain replacement ballots and vote using an accessible ballot. Elections staff will be available to answer questions and provide information about voting. Activities for children will give families an opportunity to learn about elections together.

Ballots & Books provides convenient access to election services in communities throughout the county. Residents are encouraged to visit a participating library during the following events:

- Thursday, October 15, 1:30–5:30 p.m.
Boulder Creek Library, 13390 West Park Avenue, Boulder Creek
