FEMA, CalOES SURVEY STORM DAMAGE THROUGHOUT COUNTY

David Reid, the director of the Santa Cruz County Office of Response, Recovery & Resilience, issued the following statement today following a visit by Federal Emergency Management Administration (FEMA) Administrator Deanne Criswell, FEMA Region 9 Administrator Robert Fenton Jr., California Office of Emergency Services Chief Deputy Director Lisa Mangat and other state and federal emergency officials.

“We’d like to thank FEMA Administrator Deanna Criswell, CalOES Chief Deputy Lisa Mangat, and their teams for visiting to better understand the scope of damage we are facing throughout our county. We look forward to working closely with our state and federal partners throughout the recovery process.”
